

Acknowledgements

We thank Profs. P. Baas (Univ. Leiden) and H. Ohba (Univ. Tokyo) for giving us the opportunity to investigate Siebold mineral collections. We are greatly indebted to Dr. W. Prins (Naturalis, Leiden), Prof. L. Kriegsman (Naturalis, Leiden), Mr. P. Wittekoek (Naturalis, Leiden), Mr. E. Kruidenier (Naturalis, Leiden), Dr. G. Thijsee (Univ. Leiden) for helping us to carry out the research at the National Museum of Natural History, Leiden and the National Herbarium in Leiden University. We also thank Dr. T. Sasaki (Univ. Tokyo), Ms. A. Tanikawa (Univ. Tokyo) and Dr. S. Akiyama (Nat. Sci. Mus. Tokyo) for helpful discussions.

English and German texts were critically read by Drs. Gordon McKay (NASA Johnson Space Center) and Dr. Lothar Schropfer (Universität Frankfurt am Main), respectively. We thank all international colleagues from Siebold's age to the present.

This research was financially supported by the Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research of The Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology of Japan (Project No.13571040 and 16401036) and by the Asahi Glass Foundation.